CLASSES OF INSTRUCTION FOR PROSPECTORS AND OTHERS.

NOTICE is hereby given that classes of instruction for prospectors, miners and others interested in mining are being held in Rossland, B. C., under the control of the Rossland School of Mines, assisted by a grant from the Provincial Government.

The Instructors are J. M. McGregor, B. A. Sc., P. L. S., and H. E. T. Haultain, B. A. Sc.

The course extends over the months of January, February, March and April, and consists of a series of lectures and classes on five evenings each week.

The course covers:

CHEMISTRY.—A short course of lectures preparatory to the course in mineralogy and blowpiping.

MINERALOGY AND BLOWPIPING.—Lectures on the elements of mineralogy illustrated by hand specimens and a course of blow-piping.

GEOLOGY.—Lectures on elements of geology as illustrated from the geology of British Columbia, and the mode of occurrence of ore deposits, vein formation, fissures, faults, etc., and field methods.

PROSPECTING AND WINNING OF ORES.—The application of the principles of mineralogy, geology, and mechanics to the discovery and winning of valuable minerals, and the methods and appliances in use to open up the deposits, and the various methods of ore treatment.

MECHANICS.—The elementary principles of mechanics and their application to mining, dealing with strength of iron, steel and timber, and machinery.

DRAWING.—The elements of drawing, such as will enable the student to make serviceable sketches in the field, the free-hand sketching of machinery, and the principles of reading maps and plans and surveys.

There will be a small reference library.

Copper, by electrolytic, gravimetric, colorimetric and volumetric (cyanide or other approved) methods.

Iron, by volumetric and gravimetric methods.

Nickel, by electrolytic method.

Lead, lime, zinc, sulphur and silica, by any approved wet methods.

The mineralogical determination of a number of simple mineral substances.

ENTRANCE FOR EXAMINATION.

Entrance for any examination must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Examiners, at least ten days before the date set for beginning of examination, and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee ($10).

CERTIFICATE.

A certificate of efficiency in assaying will, upon payment of the prescribed fee ($15), be issued to each successful candidate, which certificate shall be considered as a licence to practise assaying in British Columbia; and notice is hereby given that after the first day of March, 1901, only those holding such certificate of proficiency or licence will be allowed to act as assayors in this Province, under penalty, as provided by the Act.

EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.

In accordance with subsection (2) of section 12 of the Act, graduates of certain Schools of Mines and Colleges may be exempt from examinations, and may, upon satisfying the examiners, as provided in the Act, receive such certificate of competency or licence, upon payment of the fee therefor ($15.00).

While the Department of Mines will provide all the apparatus and chemicals usually necessary, it will not undertake to provide any special or unusual appliances or chemicals which might be called for, and if a candidate should require such he will have to provide them at his own expense.

Candidates must provide themselves with such platinum ware and sets of weights as they may require.

The Department of Mines will make no charge for the use of chemicals or apparatus, but a candidate will be charged for all breakages or unnecessary loss caused by him.

Any additional information desired may be obtained from H. Carmichael, Secretary, Board of Examiners, Victoria.

RICHARD MCBRIDE,
Minister of Mines.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Friday, the 11th day of January, 1901.

PRESENT :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS lots numbers one (1) and two (2) in block number four (4) in the Town of Revelstoke, in the Province of British Columbia, were conveyed to the said Province of British Columbia on or about the 13th day of May, 1886, by Arthur Stanhope Farwell, to whom letters patent had been previously issued by the Crown, as represented by that Province, for a parcel of land of which these two lots form part:

And whereas under the final judgment rendered in an action in which the Queen, on the information of the Attorney-General of Canada, was plaintiff, and the said Arthur Stanhope Farwell was defendant, the patent so issued to him by the Province of British Columbia was in effect declared of no force and effect, and he was ordered to execute to Her Majesty the Queen, in the right of the Dominion of Canada, a surrender of all the unsold parts of the tract so patented to him:

And whereas such surrender was executed accordingly, and it was thereupon decided, wherever the circumstances permitted, to issue to the purchaser from Mr. Farwell of any part of such tract, or to any person shewing a satisfactory chain of title from such purchaser, letters patent therefor of Her Majesty, as represented by the Dominion of Canada, and as letters patent do not issue from the Dominion of Canada to a Province, it is desirable that the title of the Province of British Columbia to the two lots above mentioned be confirmed by the Governor in Council:

Therefore, His Excellency, by and with the advice of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, is pleased to order that the title of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, for the purposes of the Province of British Columbia, to the above-mentioned lots numbers one (1) and two (2) in block number four (4) in the Town of Revelstoke, in the said Province of British Columbia, shall be and the same is hereby confirmed.

JOHN J. McGEE,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

To purchase, discover, hire, exchange, develop, lease, locate, or otherwise acquire any mineral lands, mineral claims or prospects, mines or mining rights, and any real estate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to pay for the same, either in money or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares, and to sell or lease, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any of them:

(b.) To raise, crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate and prepare for market, ore, metal and mineral substances of all kinds, whether the property of the Company or not, in British Columbia, or elsewhere, and to carry on any metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to the Company’s objects or any of them, or which may seem capable of being useful or profitably carried on in connection with the business of the Company, and to sell, dispose of and to deal in any ore, metal, and mineral substances resulting from or to be obtained in the process of milling, crushing, smelting, refining or manufacturing the same, and either free or in combination with other substances:

(c.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, work, manage, control and superintend any trails, roadways, tramways, reservoirs, water-courses, water rights, bridges, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, electrical works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, factories, warehouses, and other conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the Company, or to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid and take part in such operations:

(d.) To buy, sell, manufacture and deal in minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, and provisions and things capable of being used in connection with metallurgical operations, or any of the business of the Company, or required by workmen and others employed by the Company:

(e.) To purchase, take or lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire and hold lands, mines, factories, buildings, furnaces for smelting or treating ores and refining metals, mining rights, rights of way, light or water, or any other rights or privileges, machinery, businesses, goodwill, plants, stock in trade, or any other real or personal property as may be deemed advisable:

(f.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, and to hold, work, manage, improve, sell and turn to account any lands, tenements, water rights and privileges, and to sell, mortgage, lease, sub-let or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(g.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(h.) To clean, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, plant, build on or otherwise work, use and improve any land which, or any interest in which, may belong to the Company; to deal with any farm or other product of the land of the Company; to lay out cities, or towns, or villages on any lands of the Company.

(i.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on or which can be conveniently carried on with or in connection with the same, or may seem to this Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(j.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company, as the Company may think fit:

(k.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise with any person or company carrying on, or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(l.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(n.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in particular any mines, mining rights, lands, timber lands or limits, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade:

(o.) To lend or invest moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advancements for the purpose of this Company, on stocks, shares and other securities, and on properties of all kinds, and in such a manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage and charge the undertakings of all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or re-acquired, or its unearned capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(q.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government, or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company’s objects or any of them, and to obtain from such Government or authority any rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or, if deemed desirable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(r.) To act as factors or agent in relation to the purchase, sale, receipt and disposition of all kinds of ore, mineral and produce of mines and smelters:

(s.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company’s constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings, or applications, which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company’s interests:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining application for, or placing shares, and to apply at the cost of the Company to Parliament for any extension of the Company’s powers.

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered in any place or country:

(w.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(x.) Nothing hereinbefore contained shall give or be construed to give this Company any greater or further powers than are permitted to a Company incorporated as a Company having non-personal liability under the "Companies Act, 1897," and all the objects hereinbefore expressed are hereby restricted to acquiring, managing, developing, working, and selling mines, mineral claims and mining properties, and the winning, getting, treating, refining, and marketing of minerals therefrom.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The British Columbia Pyrites Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies' Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five million shares of one cent each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 13th day of March, one thousand nine hundred and one.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire certain mines, real estate and mineral claims and rights in the Province of British Columbia known as the "Belle Hulen," "Bluestone," "Red Bluff," and "Red Gulch" Mineral Claims, situated in the Skeena Mining Division of Cassiar District, and with a view thereto to carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement which has already been prepared, and is intended to be executed after the incorporation of the company, expressed to be made between John Bryden, Robert Hemington Swinerton, and William Edgar Oliver, of the aforesaid City of Victoria, of the one part, therein called the vendors, and the Company of the other part:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and prospect, explore, work, develop, let, sell and turn to account and deal with any mines, metalliferous lands, mining rights, or prospects in British Columbia:

(c.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, and let, sell, deal with, or turn to account any real and personal property whatsoever, and any rights, privileges, or patent which the Company may think necessary or advantageous for the purposes of its business:

(d.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable or advantageous for the purposes of the Company, or which business or property it would for any other business be advantageous to the Company to acquire:

(e.) To lease, purchase or otherwise acquire and deal with, work, let, and dispose of timber, timber leases, and all rights and privileges in any way connected with the lumber trade, and carry on the business of timber merchants and saw-mill proprietors in all its branches:

(f.) To carry on the business of paper, wood pulp, chemical, powder, explosives and fertilizing manufacturers:

(g.) To raise, crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate and prepare for market, ore, metal, and mineral substances of all kinds, whether the property of the Company or not, in British Columbia and to carry on any metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, or which may seem capable of being usefully or profitably carried on in connection with the other business of the Company, and to sell, dispose of, and deal in any ore, metal, and mineral substances, either in a manufactured state or otherwise, and any materials resulting from, or to be obtained in the process of smelting, refining, or manufacturing the same, and either free or in combination with other substances:

(h.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, operate, control and superintend any trails, roadways, trainways, railways, reservoirs, flumes, ditches, water-courses, bridges, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, smelting works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electrical works, factories, warehouses, ships, boats, scows, barges, steamers, and all buildings, works, conveniences and machinery whatsoever, which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidise, or otherwise aid and take part in such operation:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interest, co-operation, amalgamation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(k.) To divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river or lake in British Columbia, for the use of their business, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, and other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(l.) To construct, maintain and alter any buildings, works or factories necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company.

(m.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

(n.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities, municipal, local or otherwise that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.

(o.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any property of the Company:

(p.) To sell the property and undertaking of the Company or any part thereof at such time or times, in such manner, on such terms, and for such consideration as the Company may think fit:

(q.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(r.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods or chattels purchased by the Company or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined.

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(t.) To mortgage the uncalled capital of the Company subject to the provisions of the Act:

(u.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital:

(v.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(w.) To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, or other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(x.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(y.) To form, constitute, and promote companies, syndicates, associations and undertakings of all kinds and finance and subsidize the same:

(z.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any place or country:

(zz.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 610.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Bonanza Hydraulic Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of ten dollars each.

The time of the existence of the Company is fifty years.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 13th day of March, one thousand nine hundred and one.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire, by purchase or otherwise howsoever, hold and operate certain water-rights and privileges, mining rights, plant, pumping plant, hydraulic piping, flumes, sluices, lead boxes, saw-mill and machinery and plant connected therewith, and all property whatsoever, both real and personal, rights and privileges formerly belonging to or held by the Bonanza Water Company, heretofore operating on Bonanza Creek, Yukon Territory:

(b.) To dispose of by sale, lease or otherwise, water for mining or other purposes to other companies, corporations, persons or firms, at such rates and times and in such manner, and on such terms and for such remuneration, as may be deemed advisable by the Company:

(c.) To acquire, by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, concession or otherwise howsoever, real estate, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining property, mining lands and mining rights of every description, auriferous land and undertakings connected therewith in the Yukon Territory or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada, or any interest therein, and to work, develop, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein:

(d.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyze, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them, and generally to carry on any metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(e.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(f.) To buy, sell, refine and deal in bullion, specie, coin and precious metals:

(g.) To acquire, by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise and hold lands, mines, estates, mills, factories, buildings, timber lands or leases, surface rights, rights of way, water-rights or privileges, furnaces for smelting or treating ores and refining metals, machinery, plant, businesses, good wills, stock-in-trade, or other real or personal property as may be deemed advisable:

(h.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work and operate any buildings, works, canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, smelting works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, machinery, plant, stores and other works or conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly to contribute to any of the objects of the Company:

(i.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(j.) To use steam, water, or electricity, or any other power, as a motive power, or otherwise, and to supply same to other companies, persons or firms:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company:

(l.) To establish, operate and maintain stores, trading posts and supply stations, for the purposes of the Company, and the supplying goods to any of its employees, or the occupiers of any of its lands, or any other persons, and for bartering or dealing in the products of mine and forest, and the carrying on of the general business of traders and merchants:

(m.) To borrow or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgage or the issue of debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial), or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(p.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or the Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(r.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(s.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company, as the Company may think fit:

(t.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such Company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(u.) To take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company:

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered in any place or country:

(w.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainments of the above objects:

(x.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report theron to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A (see Journals, 1900, page 175) a model form of Railway Bill is adopted.

By 65b all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Dated 16th November, 1900.

THORNTON FELL,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
